The Asian Studies Major, part of the International & Area Studies IDP, allows students to analyze the area (or a subregion, e.g., East Asia, Southeast Asia, South Asia, Central Asia) from an interdisciplinary and modern perspective. The major seeks to ground students in broad international issues which they can then use to focus on particular concerns of that part of the world.

Preparation for the Major: 6 courses, plus language requirement

Preparation Courses

- Introduction to International & Area Studies (1 course)
  - International & Area Studies 1

- Foreign Language-Intermediate (Up to 6 courses)
  - Completion of the intermediate year (generally the sixth quarter) of any modern foreign language related to the area (e.g., Chinese 6 or 6A, Filipino 6, Hindi-Urdu 6, Indonesian 6, Japanese 6, Korean 6, Thai 6, Vietnamese 6). The language requirement can also be fulfilled in part or in total via a placement exam given through the appropriate language department.

Admission to the Major: UCLA students must apply to the Asian Studies major. Students can apply at the end of every term after having completed all preparation courses* with a minimum UC GPA of 2.00 in these courses. Admission to the Asian Studies major is on a competitive basis, using the preparation requirements as a minimum standard for consideration. Note that meeting minimum qualifications does not guarantee admission to the Asian Studies major.

*Completion of the elementary year of the foreign language is acceptable when applying for the major. Completion of the intermediate year of the foreign language is required to fulfill all preparation requirements, but can be done after being accepted to the major. The minimum prep GPA of 2.00 will still need to be met with the inclusion of this course.

International Themes

- International Societies & Cultures (2 courses)

- International Politics & Markets (2 courses)
Area Studies-Group 1

- Humanities & Arts (3 courses)

- Social Sciences (3 courses)

- Additional Elective (1 course)
  One additional course selected from the Area Studies-Group 1 courses listed above.

Area Studies-Group 2

The Area Studies Electives listed in Group 1 focus on contemporary issues of that region (post-1750). However, students may substitute a maximum of 3 upper division courses focusing on earlier historical aspects of the region or on diasporas with origins related to the region toward the Area Studies Electives as long the distribution between Social Sciences and Humanities & Arts is maintained. These may be selected from the following list:

Capstone Course

- International & Area Studies Senior Seminar (1 course)
  International & Area Studies 191: Variable Topics in International & Area Studies: Senior Seminar

Note that students may partially fulfill the Area Studies Elective requirement by participating in an International Institute Summer Travel Study program. These programs consist of two courses in and on a particular region of the world. Please consult the Academic Counselor for more information on available programs.

- All courses used towards the major (including preparation for the major courses) must be taken for a letter grade.
- The minimum UC GPA for preparation courses is 2.00. The minimum GPA for upper division courses is 2.00.
- Students may choose to focus their area studies courses on a subregion (e.g., East Asia, Southeast Asia, South Asia, Central Asia) but are strongly encouraged not to focus solely on a single country.
- Courses designated with a “†” are 2-unit courses and must either be taken twice- or two courses from the same category (if applicable) may be taken- to count as one 4-unit course.
